1 THE COURT: Hello?

2 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Good afternoon, your Honor. This is 3 Lisa Rodriguez.

4 THE COURT: Ms. Rodriguez, I'm here with Lisa Marcus
5 who is the court reporter, also my courtroom deputy Larry 6 MacStravic is in the room, and my law clerk Nick Bamman is in 7 the room, so there's four of us here.

8 Okay. Now, can I have the appearances of everybody on 9 this call?

10 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Your Honor, this is Lisa Rodriguez
11 for the plaintiff.

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 MS. ACCHIONE: Nicole Acchione for the plaintiffs.

14 MR. PRESS: Allen Press for the plaintiffs.

15 MR. JACOBSON: Joe Jacobson for the plaintiffs.

16 THE COURT: That's Joe Jacobson?

17 MR. JACOBSON: Yes, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

19 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, this is Steve Fram for ALPA.
20 And also on the line is John Connell, my partner.

21 THE COURT: Steve Fram, F-R-A-M, and John Connell.

22 MR. KATZ: Judge Irenas, Dan Katz, and I'm on the 23 line as well.

24 THE COURT: Okay. There are a variety of motions 25 pending. And, in fact, one thing I want to do before the

1 hearing is out, is set a new court hearing date for the trial 2 motion. But the purpose of this call is to deal with two 3 applications, one is an application to revoke the pro hac vice 4 admission of Allen Press and Joe Jacobson, and the second is a 5 motion by the plaintiffs to impose Rule 11 sanctions on the 6 defendant for bringing the motion. And then I guess there's a 7 third application inherent buried in the defense papers, is a 8 request for legal fees if they win the Rule 11 motion under, I
9 think it's 11(c)(2), so I guess that could be called a third 10 application.

11 Now, the motion is Mr. Fram's motion or defense motion, 12 but Mr. Fram appears to be the muscle behind the motion.
13 Mr. Fram, I'm going to turn it over to you, you can rely on 14 your papers or you can emphasize or do whatever you want. So 15 you're on.

16 MR. FRAM: Thank you, your Honor.

17 I hadn't anticipated arguing the merits of the motion.
18 Indeed, we have a reply brief that is a draft.

19 THE COURT: No, I'm not going to wait for any reply
20 brief. I don't need a reply brief for this, there's already 21 overkill on this motion. And it hardly behooves you to say 22 you're not prepared to argue, you clearly are deeply involved 23 in the preparation of this motion, and judging from your 24 affidavits you know the record with exquisite detail.

25 MR. FRAM: I do, your Honor. It's not that I'm not

1 prepared, I think what I meant to say is I didn't anticipate 2 being asked to argue now.

3 THE COURT: Well, I've spent the last four hours 4 going over the papers and it strikes me that, you know, it's 5 the kind of motion that I believe should be disposed of 6 quickly in any case. I think Mr. Jacobson, because of his 7 pending selection as one of three possible candidates, if 8 that's still out there, for the Supreme Court of Missouri, 9 maybe puts a little more urgency to get the motion dealt with.
10 But I want to deal with it now, I don't want any more briefs
11 from anybody. But I'll give you all the -- I'm not going to 12 limit your argument in any way.

13 MR. FRAM: Thank you, your Honor.

14 Let me summarize what I think are the major points.
15 The first is that Mr. Press elicited testimony from Roland 16 Wilder and Wilder's depositions in August 2008 that was 17 clearly incorrect testimony.

18 THE COURT: You say clearly incorrect, do you think 19 adding the word clearly somehow or other adds weight to your 20 argument? Why is it so clear?

21 MR. FRAM: Because Wilder was physically, your Honor, 22 in Louisville.

23 THE COURT: I don't know that he was physically in 24 Louisville. And even if he was physically in Louisville, you 25 mean you can't get back from Louisville to St. Louis? I mean,

1 he flip-flopped four times. And even his last time when he 2 was supposedly so clear, he said based on the entry in my day
3 book or my diary and based on the bill he had submitted, and I
4 think maybe based on an airline ticket, he said in effect I 5 must have been, but it wasn't based on his memory. Even by 6 his own statement he's not saying I remember where I was, he's 7 just saying I now conclude I was there. And he flip-flopped
8 three or four times on this. And there were, well, at least I 9 believe I could count eight or nine witnesses who also say he 10 was there on April 2nd, and they're not all plaintiff's 11 witnesses, some of them are your witnesses.

12 MR. FRAM: No, your Honor, one of the things we're 13 going to point out or we're going to point out in our reply 14 brief is the deposition testimony relied upon by the 15 plaintiff, they argue that Clay Warner and Glanzer and Tumblin 16 said he was there on the 2nd.

17 THE COURT: And Gross.

18 MR. FRAM: They all say that.

19 THE COURT: And Gross.

20 MR. FRAM: Sorry, who, your Honor?

21 THE COURT: Gross. I thought there was another one.

22 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Dave Singer.

23 THE COURT: Singer, not Gross. Singer.

24 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Dave Singer said he was there on the 25 2nd.

1 THE COURT: Yeah.

2 MR. FRAM: No, Warner did not say he was there on the 3 2nd.

4 THE COURT: Not Warner, Singer.

5 MR. FRAM: Singer said he didn't recall.

6 THE COURT: I read Warner's testimony and I think it
7 could be construed as saying that he was there. What about 8 all the pilots who some of them weren't even there until the 9 evening of the 1st said --

10 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, that's what they said and, of 11 course, Wilder contradicted them. Wilder said that --

12 THE COURT: Well, that's why we have juries. This 13 event took place ten years ago, there were numerous meetings 14 of all kinds, there were meetings at which people walked in 15 and out. I mean, your notion that he corrected his testimony, 16 he changed his testimony. He didn't correct -- I mean, that's 17 your word, corrected. He changed his testimony.

18 MR. FRAM: His memory was refreshed.

19 THE COURT: No, his memory -- he didn't say -- no, 20 that's what he didn't say. He didn't say I remember now, he 21 just said based on these documents, look at the language where 22 he testified, is based on these documents I must have not been 23 there. He doesn't say his memory was refreshed.

24 MR. FRAM: Based upon the documents, he testified 25 that he was 100 percent certain.

1 THE COURT: Based on the documents, but not based on 2 his memory.

3 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, in any event, our position is 4 that he could physically only have been, based upon the 5 testimony, in one place on April 2nd.

6 THE COURT: How far is Louisville from St. Louis?

7 MR. JACOBSON: An hour flight, your Honor.

8 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, there's no suggestion by 9 anybody he flew one place to the other.

10 THE COURT: I don't think there's any suggestion.
11 The guy flips back and forth. We have, as I say, at least 12 eight or nine witnesses who testify he was there. You accuse 13 the plaintiffs in what is the most starkly strong terms of 14 suborning perjury, about probably close to the worst thing you 15 can charge a trial lawyer with, it probably doesn't get too 16 much worse than that. And based on what?

17 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, we accuse them of presenting 18 false testimony.

19 THE COURT: You accuse them with suborning perjury.
20 You've accused them of orchestrating it so that everybody gave 21 the same testimony. That's suborning, that's more than 22 presenting.

23 MR. FRAM: And we point out, your Honor, that even 24 some of the plaintiffs' witnesses changed their testimony from 25 deposition.

1 THE COURT: Everybody in this case was changing their 2 testimony.

3 MR. FRAM: And the documents, the underlying 4 documents, which are undisputed, could not possibly have been 5 used to refresh memories.

6 THE COURT: When you say disputed, I mean, take an 7 entry in a daybook or an entry in a bill, if I had a dollar 8 for every entry by put in a daybook, in my diary when I was 9 practicing law and the event didn't take place because there 10 was a change in plans or because something happened or because 11 something else happened, I'd be a rich man. And as to 12 billing, and even though my old firm kept meticulous, tried to 13 keep very meticulous bills that we were accused sometimes of 14 being over meticulous, but mistakes were always being made.
15 People are human. You write down what you did in six cases 16 you worked on or one case you worked on, maybe you didn't get 17 it right.

18 MR. FRAM: We have the agenda for the April 2nd 19 meeting.

20 THE COURT: Right. And because the agenda omits a 21 name, that proves he wasn't there. Maybe it was planned he 22 wasn't going to be there but he changed his mind and showed 23 up.

24 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, there's no evidence to suggest 25 that happened.

1 THE COURT: There's six people who testified he was 2 there. I mean, you're -- there's six or seven, actually more
3 than six. I think if you include the six pilots that did 4 testify and then the ones, I'll call them the defense 5 witnesses, Singer, Warner, there's probably seven or eight who 6 indicated he was there that day.

7 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, that's our point. Our point 8 is that somebody was incorrect in terms of their testimony.

9 THE COURT: That's true in every case. When you have 10 a case involving events that took place, you know, eight to 11 ten years ago, where you have numerous meetings all over the 12 country, you have very many people involved, yeah, people's 13 memories are going to disagree. And even between the 1st and 14 the 2nd, what happened on the 1st or what happened on the 2nd, 15 no reason to believe that in people's minds they couldn't 16 conflate in one way or another or get confused in one way or 17 another. Yeah, it may well be that somebody's right and 18 somebody's wrong, but that's why we have juries. We don't go 19 around accusing people of suborning perjury.

20 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, the jury system only works if 21 the evidence the jury's getting is fairly presented. We have 22 not only --

23 THE COURT: Well, who presented it? You could 24 present, nobody blocked -- it wasn't that the billing, the 25 daybook and stuff was unknown at the trial, that stuff was

1 known a long time ago, long before the trial. You had the 2 opportunity to put any of that that you wanted to put forward, 3 I mean, that's legitimate to make an argument.

4 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, we think we proved and 5 certainly persuaded some jurors, we don't know because no one 6 interviewed the jury, we don't know what they believe or not, 7 but for all we know the jury agreed with our position.

8 THE COURT: Well, maybe the did, it was fine. Maybe 9 some of them agreed that really -- because remember what 10 role -- the testimony about what role and Wilder's position 11 was, even those who testified he was there, was itself a 12 little ambiguous as to, you know, some of it was referred to 13 as body language, you know, some of the testimony was how he 14 comported himself, what he said or didn't say at that meeting, 15 whether they agreed with the decision to waive scope or didn't 16 agree or on what terms he agreed, that's not all crystal 17 clear.

18 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, that's one of our points. One 19 of our points is that not only did he have people testifying 20 he was there, but contrary to the documents.

21 THE COURT: That's what the jury is for.

22 MR. FRAM: But they're giving testimony about the 23 details of what he said and how he looked that they didn't 24 recall or testify at their deposition.

25 THE COURT: Well, fine, you point that out. You had

1 the depositions. You had Wilder's flip-flopping. You had 2 what the witness' prior -- the pilots who testified.
3 Certainly the ones that were in your camp you had control over 4 who also testified he was there. Yeah, we have a lot of 5 varying testimony, what's unusual about that?

6 MR. FRAM: What's unusual about it, your Honor --

7 THE COURT: I tried a case for three-and-a-half 8 months once involving a 45 minute meeting at which either 9 three or four people were present, there wasn't even an 10 agreement as to one of the four was present, and the case went 11 for three-and-a-half months solely on what was said at that 12 meeting. I tried it from, like, June 4th, 1986, to 13 September 14th, 1996, before Judge Landau in the Superior 14 Court before he was on App. Div. In fact, he was promoted to 15 the App. Div. while the trial was going on.

16 Yeah, people give widely varying recollections of who 17 was present at a meeting, what was said at a meeting, you 18 know, what kind of body language people showed at a meeting, 19 what kind of expressions they showed at a meeting. That's why 20 we have juries or triers of fact, in this case it was a jury.

21 MR. FRAM: So, your Honor, let me just draw a 22 distinction, if I could. I don't disagree with that. The 23 plaintiffs put on their case. We argued. And I think I 24 argued persuasively in my closing that their evidence and 25 testimony I think was incredible, and I think at least some of

1 the jurors may well have believed that.

2 But the motion to revoke the pro hac vice admission 3 stands separate and apart from that. Because, in addition to 4 that testimony about April 2nd, we have, as you recall, 5 uniform testimony from the plaintiffs pilot list is that they 6 don't remember anything that was discussed or who even 7 presented on March 21 and 22. Are we to believe that's a 8 coincidence, that these people have a vivid recollection of 9 things that are helpful to the plaintiff's case.

10 THE COURT: Well, that's the day, the waiver of 11 scope, April 2nd. Isn't that the day they waived scope?

12 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Yes.

13 MR. FRAM: They voted, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: They voted to waive scope, that could be 15 a pretty memorable day since much of this case in a sense 16 focused on that decision to waive scope at that time.

17 MR. FRAM: But they discussed those issues, as you
18 may recall, in detail. They discussed --

19 THE COURT: Oh, I think they were discussing those 20 issues for a long time, I agree with you.

21 MR. FRAM: They were.

22 THE COURT: At various meetings of all kinds, yeah, I 23 agree with that.

24 MR. FRAM: But the question is is it a coincidence, a 25 complete coincidence that six plaintiff's witnesses to a

1 person --

2 THE COURT: Some defense witnesses as well.

3 MR. FRAM: But six witnesses to a person have no
4 recollection whatsoever of the advice given at a March 21st 5 and 22nd meetings. We just don't buy it, your Honor, we 6 think --

7 THE COURT: That fine, and you're allowed to argue 8 that. You argued that very strenuously, you called them all 9 liars.

10 MR. FRAM: I didn't use that word, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Well, all right, maybe I'm taking liberty 12 with the English language, but you certainly indicated they 13 weren't telling the truth.

14 MR. FRAM: I did. And I think the evidence supports 15 that.

16 THE COURT: That's what a liar is, isn't it, somebody 17 who doesn't tell the truth?

18 MR. FRAM: Well, no, it's a little bit different than 19 that, your Honor. And again --

20 THE COURT: Oh, you thought it may have been an 21 accident on their part, they didn't deliberately do it, which 22 is inconsistent with much of your brief where you very clearly 23 suggest there was perjury suborned.

24 MR. FRAM: Well, your Honor, people --

25 THE COURT: Didn't you in your brief suggest that

1 perjury was suborned?

2 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, the brief says what it says.

3 Do I think that personally? I do.

4 THE COURT: Yes. Well, the brief, that came through 5 in the brief. I'm not stupid, I can read.

6 MR. FRAM: The brief said that there was false
7 testimony.

8 THE COURT: Yes, but you suggested there was 9 woodshedding, I mean, to use the old expression. They were 10 talking to, talked to, that they didn't want to -- you know, 11 they wanted to create consistent testimony, they didn't want 12 to have inconsistencies, et cetera. I mean, you suggested 13 suborning perjury. As you said now, you believe it. And the 14 fact that you believe that comes through with crystal clarity
15 in the brief. I read your brief about six times.

16 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, the declarations we have --

17 THE COURT: And the declarations as well. You have a 18 couple declarations. The declarations are basically 19 attaching -- most of your declaration is attaching
20 transcripts.

21 MR. FRAM: The declarations I'm referring to, your 22 Honor, are those of Mr. Press and Mr. Jacobson --

23 THE COURT: Right.

24 MR. FRAM: -- they admit in their declarations that 25 there were discussions with the plaintiff's witnesses.

1 THE COURT: Well, you don't suggest that somebody who 2 doesn't discuss the case with his own witnesses, are you 3 kidding me, it would be malpractice not to do that.

4 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, Mr. Jacobson says that he 5 never talked to Hollander about the events of April 23rd, so 6 we have that in the declaration that they never discussed --

7 THE COURT: So you're saying he lied when he said 8 that?

9 MR. FRAM: No. No. No. Of course not, your Honor.
10 I'm saying --

11 THE COURT: All they say -- on Hollander, which has 12 to do with Woerth's statement that, the alleged statement "get 13 real" or the TWA pilots "have to get real" and deals with the 14 April 23rd meeting, he says basically that there was 15 confusion. And it's very clear from the record that when you 16 confronted, when you -- Hollandsder 'fessed right up, I mean, 17 he made not the slightest effort to weasel, just that he was 18 confused. And what he said was at the end of the day, I was 19 in constant phone contact with people who were there so I knew 20 what was going on at the meeting, but I wasn't physically 21 there, he never tried to conceal that. Nothing -- when you 22 read the record as a whole, there's nothing indicating he was 23 trying to hide anything.

24 MR. FRAM: He testified directly on direct that I was 25 there, he was asked the question --

1 THE COURT: Yes, and I was even confused by that. I
2 thought -- when we had our voir dire hearing, I thought that 3 he was there, and I think I even said that he can testify as 4 to what he heard Woerth say. I think I said that, didn't I?

5 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, he testified directly I was 6 there on the 23rd.

7 THE COURT: Right. And when you crossed him at some 8 point later on, he said he wasn't there.

9 MR. FRAM: But how -- so how was Hollander's initial 10 testimony, which he never would have corrected if I didn't 11 cross him on it --

12 THE COURT: I don't know, that's what 13 cross-examination is for. That's what cross is for.

14 MR. FRAM: How was -- but is the point of a trial, 15 your Honor, to put on false testimony?

16 THE COURT: No, you put on testimony, the witnesses
17 do the best they can and often make mistakes. That's a big 18 difference from a lawyer suborning perjury or deliberately 19 putting on false. I mean, what you have charged these lawyers 20 with, if proven, could result in their being disbarred, 21 possibly even permanently.

22 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, we have minutes of that 23 April 23rd meeting.

24 THE COURT: So what?

25 MR. FRAM: Hollander is not there.

1 THE COURT: No, he's not listed in the minutes.

2 MR. FRAM: No, but --

3 THE COURT: He's not listed in the minutes, it
4 doesn't mean he wasn't there. By the way, he admits he wasn't 5 there now. He admitted to the jury he wasn't there.

6 MR. FRAM: There's a statement by Case on the --

7 THE COURT: Right. He reads a statement in which 8 Hollander explains why he can't be there.

9 MR. FRAM: All right. So if we're to believe that 10 both Hollander, who is testifying, and Mr. Jacobson, who is 11 presenting him --

12 THE COURT: Hold it. Mr. Jacobson -- Hollander -- 13 the state of the record now is Hollander said he wasn't there.
14 That's a different story whether Jacobson deliberately put on 15 false testimony.

16 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, the documents --

17 THE COURT: I hope you don't do this too often, 18 Mr. Fram. You've tried complicated cases, and complicated
19 cases we're going to have witnesses veering off. Do you know 20 what Justice Weintraub once said, the late great Justice 21 Weintraub, he said all automobile accidents happen on the 22 yellow pad in a lawyer's office. You know, trials put all 23 kinds of pressures on people, there are sometimes multiple 24 depositions, there's review of the facts with the lawyers, 25 there's the inherent self interest that people have.

1 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, I'm not able to hear you.

2 THE COURT: I'm not saying anything now anyhow.

3 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, this is the only time I've 4 ever filed a motion like this before. And I did it because,
5 as I've outlined in my declaration, we watched with dismay --

6 THE COURT: Somebody is moving papers around or cups 7 around.

8 MR. FRAM: I don't know who is doing that, your 9 Honor.

10 THE COURT: Whoever is doing it, stop.

11 MR. FRAM: So, your Honor, obviously, you have 12 reviewed the papers carefully, as is your practice and which 13 we certainly appreciate. I've outlined the facts that I think 14 supports the motion and supported of them. And I genuinely 15 believe and strongly believe, based upon the motion, that 16 there was false testimony and that counsel knew with respect 17 to some of that false testimony that it was false.

18 THE COURT: And you go a step further in your brief, 19 you basically argue that the consistency, if you want to call 20 it that, of the testimony of the defense pilot witnesses is a 21 result of, and I use the wordshedding, the result of 22 testimonial review, if you will, with each of those witnesses 23 and the fact that it was suborned.

24 MR. FRAM: You just said defense witnesses, I think 25 you meant plaintiff's witnesses.

1 THE COURT: Plaintiff's witnesses. I'm sorry, you're 2 correct.

3 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, there's no question that 4 circumstances sometimes speak louder than direct testimony.
5 My experience tells me, and the declarations we have from my 6 firm, as your Honor commented before, that time was spent 7 preparing witnesses and my conclusion, I think the only 8 conclusion you can draw from the changes from deposition, from 9 the detail and the like, is that the result of those 10 discussions is that the testimony on the plaintiff's side was 11 conformed.

12 THE COURT: Was conformed, that's the language of 13 suborning perjury.

14 MR. FRAM: That's what happened.

15 THE COURT: That is the language. I mean, you're 16 gussing it up using the word conformed, that but the 17 language -- that's your charge that this was suborned perjury.

18 MR. FRAM: What's the explanation for how --

19 THE COURT: No, don't ask me a question.

20 MR. FRAM: All right.

21 THE COURT: Make an argument.

22 MR. FRAM: It's rhetoric.

23 THE COURT: Don't even ask a rhetoric question, it 24 gets me nervous.

25 MR. FRAM: My conclusion is based upon the facts and

1 the research and other false testimony from these witnesses, 2 which we have not raised as far as this motion but which we've 3 noted in my declaration, is that the process of preparing 4 these witnesses to testify resulted in different testimony 5 than what was given at deposition and testimony that's 6 inconsistent with documents that are reliable and 7 undisputable. And the only conclusion I can draw, and I think 8 it's the right conclusion, is the circumstances here were that 9 the plaintiffs wanted to present, did present a uniform 10 consistent story.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MR. FRAM: But I think the facts speak loudly. I
13 think the Hollander testimony about April 23rd, we've read
14 Mr. Jacobson's declaration --

15 THE COURT: I have several times.

16 MR. FRAM: Your Honor is familiar with the 17 transcripts.

18 THE COURT: I read the transcripts, some of them 19 several times.

20 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, I think you were as clear as 21 you could have been, when you permitted to Mr. Hollander to 22 testify, that his testimony had to be on firsthand 23 information.

24 THE COURT: I did. The answer is absolutely. I 25 thought, and you quoted my section in your papers from the

1 trial, and there was no question at that point I believed that 2 he had been there and I thought that his testimony as to what 3 the ALPA president said was admissible as long as it was -- he 4 was reporting what he heard him say and I said so.

5 MR. FRAM: And your Honor was shocked when I asked 6 him on cross-examination.

7 THE COURT: I don't shock that easily, but the answer
8 is, yes, I mean, I was surprised.

9 MR. FRAM: You were surprised, and you were surprised 10 in part, I'm sure, because as we all were, because this issue 11 of what Woerth allegedly said has been a big issue in this 12 case. I think we pointed out in one of our papers that you 13 summarized the evidence about the issues in your published 14 Opinion denying summary judgment, it's an issue that Mr. Press 15 mentioned in his opening, the issue who was there and what was 16 said has been a big issue in the case for a long time. And we 17 don't accept the explanation that Mr. Jacobson has offered 18 that he didn't talk to the witness ahead of time or talk to 19 somebody ahead of time about that issue and that this is all a 20 result of confusion.

21 THE COURT: Remember, Mr. Jacobson, who got into the 22 case actually fairly late, I think, would certainly be aware 23 of, let's call it the documentary evidence that would support
24 an argument that Hollander -- well, Hollander's own testimony 25 he wasn't there. But, I mean, who was it, was it Ted Case who

1 read the message from Hollander?

2 MR. FRAM: Yes, your Honor.

3 THE COURT: I mean, we knew -- I mean, that was 4 already in the record. I mean, that blurb about Case said 5 Hollander couldn't attend and his lack of being listed as 6 being there. So you're saying, well, we'll put this false
7 testimony on, we know Fram has the goodies but we will put it 8 on anyhow.

9 MR. FRAM: No, your Honor. No, we're saying that in 10 the middle of a trial if we throw enough stuff up against the 11 wall, the defendants will not be able to address all of it, 12 they won't be able to catch all of it.

13 THE COURT: Why would he have any reason to think 14 that? Why would they -- I saw nothing in the defendant's 15 performance in this case other than to suggest they were 16 extraordinarily well prepared, they had documents, the 17 minutes, whatever other documents there were, they were well 18 organized.

19 MR. FRAM: Your Honor --

20 THE COURT: I absolutely disagree with that premise 21 that anybody had any reason to believe that, well, Fram won't 22 notice this document or Fram won't see this set of minutes or 23 he won't think of it, that somehow or other you're throwing 24 stuff against the wall and poor old Mr. Fram and poor young 25 Mr. Katz -- how do you like that, Mr. Katz?

1 MR. KATZ: I like that. That's a new one.

2 THE COURT: Yeah. Young Mr. Katz and old Mr. Fram 3 would somehow or other, and their assistants, would somehow or 4 other miss a relevant document or a relevant piece of 5 deposition or something like that. Nothing about this case --
6 Would somebody stop moving paper around?

7 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, I appreciate the Court's 8 observation about our about level of preparedness. But the 9 fact of the matter is there were many other instances where we 10 had to identify things that were not consistent and many as 11 well where we didn't have as much resources. I think I've 12 cited in my declaration the situation where Matt Comlish, if 13 your Honor recalls, he gives this dramatic testimony about 14 confronting of Duane Woerth on Capitol Hill about being yelled 15 at and on and on and on. And then I find Welch is testifying, 16 from reviewing his deposition with my name, when Mr. Katz 17 asked him that very same question in his deposition he said I 18 never talked to Duane Woerth about this issue at all.

19 THE COURT: And he was confronted with that.

20 MR. FRAM: And he was. And he --

21 THE COURT: So you wind up almost better off by 22 proving a witness, you know, may have been erroneous in his 23 direct testimony.

24 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, I really fear that we're 25 confusing whether or not the testimony, Comlish's testimony

1 was clearly false either in the deposition or trial.

2 THE COURT: It may have been inaccurate, but that's a 3 far cry from a lawyer deliberately putting on false testimony 4 or even worse suborning it.

5 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, Comlish lied in his deposition 6 or he lied at trial, we don't know which.

7 THE COURT: No, he was erroneous either at trial or 8 at deposition.

9 MR. FRAM: Well, your Honor, in the absence of an 10 explanation that he had some type of epiphany or remembered 11 some things --

12 THE COURT: Remembrance of things past, as Proust 13 said.

14 MR. FRAM: In the absence of some explanation, and 15 none was given, he never tried to address it on redirect, the 16 conclusion is reached that he made something up, he either 17 withheld it at deposition or made up at trial. My point is, 18 back to your Honor's comment, is that to say let's put stuff 19 on at trial and rely upon the defense to catch us and get all 20 these instances, again to the extent we catch them, to the 21 extent the jury observes that and it hurts their credibility, 22 yeah. If we're arguing a new trial motion, maybe the Court 23 would be concerned that there was some prejudice with respect 24 to some of these incidents. We don't believe, as we may have 25 pointed out in our papers, I don't think the jury, if they

1 even thought about it, was prepared to decide in favor of the 2 plaintiff with respect to the events of April 2nd, we don't 3 know because we don't have a verdict that's specific to that.
4 But the motion we're arguing now goes to whether or not we 5 caught them or proved it was false, there was lying, really 6 says nothing about whether or not there's violations, as we 7 believe there were, of RPC 3.3.

8 THE COURT: Look, if somebody is suborning perjury or 9 if somebody deliberately puts on testimony he or she knows to 10 be false, I agree with you that that violates the RPC, not 11 only on the candor to the Tribunal, but probably a few other 12 ones as well, a few other RPC's as well. That point you don't 13 have to -- if I thought -- and I can think of one particular 14 lawyer that's disbarred now from many states who had a habit
15 of doing that, of putting on false testimony. So there's no 16 question. The premise that suborning perjury or even putting, 17 I don't know where the line just putting on testimony you know 18 to be false and suborning it, it's a pretty close line, but 19 would not justify revoking a pro hac vice admission, I agree 20 with that. The question is, is that what's happened here. I 21 don't disagree with the premise.

22 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, look, we put the proof 23 forward.

24 THE COURT: I know you did.

25 MR. FRAM: The most striking example is the Hollander

1 testimony about April 23rd.

2 THE COURT: Well, actually you spend much more time
3 with Wilder than you do on that issue.

4 MR. FRAM: Because I think why spend time on 5 something that is as clear from the transcript.

6 THE COURT: All right.

7 MR. FRAM: I was there on the 23rd, yes, I was, when 8 in fact we know it wasn't. So I don't think there's any point 9 in spending more time on that. You've seen the transcript.
10 You were there, you were as surprised as I was, I'm sure as we 11 all were, when he admitted readily on cross, no, I wasn't 12 there. And we said if you weren't there, why did you say five 13 minutes ago you were. So it's up to you, obviously, your 14 Honor, to decide whether you find Mr. Jacobson's explanation 15 of how that happened to be credible. We don't. But, 16 obviously, that's why you're the Judge and we are not.

17 THE COURT: That's why George Bush, Sr., appointed 18 me, to make just these kind of decisions.

19 MR. FRAM: I doubt he had these kinds of decisions in 20 mind, your Honor. But, in any event, you either think that we 21 met the burden and, of course, we don't have to prove any of 22 this beyond a reasonable doubt.

23 THE COURT: No, I agree with that, that's not the 24 standard.

25 MR. FRAM: That's not the standard. We don't have

1 access to documents that might undercut some of the statements
2 made in the declaration. One of the things we're going to 3 point out in our reply brief, which you will never see, no one 4 will --

5 THE COURT: Hopefully.

6 MR. FRAM: -- is that those declarations don't talk 7 about the specifics of who was involved in the meeting. They 8 don't explain, for example, how Hollander's deposition 9 testimony came -- how he went from saying that Wilder was 10 there on the 2nd but stood silent, he said not a word. How 11 did he go from that to testifying at trial that Wilder said 12 all kinds of things and people told him to be quiet, that's 13 never explained.

14 So, from our perspective, your Honor, the plaintiff's 15 lawyers have not met their burden of addressing the issues 16 that we raised. And for that reason we believe that it would 17 be appropriate for the Court to grant the motion. We don't 18 want to continue in a case that in all likelihood, certainly 19 if it continues, it's going to be contentious and have a lot 20 of issues, we've outlined that as well. So unless your Honor 21 has other questions --

22 THE COURT: No.

23 MR. FRAM: -- we would otherwise rest on our papers 24 and ask the Court to grant the motion.

25 Is there anything you want me to say, your Honor, with

1 respect to the Rule 11 motion?

2 THE COURT: Well, I'm going to deal with that a
3 little separately. I think I have to rule on this first, then 4 I think the two Rule 11 motions, their motion and your motion, 5 well, you didn't make a separate motion but it's in your 6 papers, can be heard. That's my plan.

7 MR. FRAM: Okay. Unless you have further questions, 8 your Honor, that's all I have. I rest on my papers otherwise.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Katz, anything you want to add?

10 MR. KATZ: Nothing to add, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Thank you.

12 Now, as to the plaintiff's side, I don't know how 13 you're going to break -- I mean, clearly, Mr. Jacobson should 14 have the laboring aura on the April 23rd incident with 15 Hollander. I don't know how you're going to handle the 16 April 2nd business. So I'll leave it to the plaintiffs to 17 whack up the argument any way they want.

18 MR. PRESS: Judge, this is Allen Press.

19 THE COURT: Yes, Allen.

20 MR. PRESS: There's not an ounce of truth in anything 21 Mr. Fram has said this morning.

22 THE COURT: Oh, there's an ounce of truth.

23 MR. PRESS: No, I mean about the fact that we coached 24 our witnesses to lie. This is just an outrageous allegation, 25 Judge, there's no truth to it at all. It's hard for me to 1 temper my comments about this.

2 THE COURT: Well, temper them anyhow.

3 MR. PRESS: I know. I'm trying my best, Judge.

4 THE COURT: By the way, one of Mr. Fram's geniuses as 5 a lawyer, is that he can wield an AK-47 and do it in such a 6 calm straightforward way without raising his voice, without 7 betraying any kind of, you know, unease or anything, he does 8 it smooth as silk. So why don't you emulate that.

9 MR. PRESS: Judge, you obviously read all the papers 10 and I don't know what I can really add to that.

11 THE COURT: Add whatever you think is most 12 persuasive.

13 MR. PRESS: I'm telling you as a lawyer, and I'm 14 talking to a judge, that what Mr. Fram accused me of doing 15 didn't happen. It didn't happen.

16 THE COURT: All right. I hear you.

17 MR. PRESS: You know, he's entitled to his belief, 18 Judge, but he's not entitled to make allegations that have no 19 objective reasonableness, and these accusations don't have 20 any. There's nothing reasonable at all in anything he's 21 alleged us having done and we would ask you to sanction him.
22 I've never filed a Rule 11 motion, never done it in 20 years,
23 but I think Rule 11 is made for this. And really, Judge, 24 that's all I have to add to what's already in the record.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Jacobson?

1 MR. JACOBSON: Your Honor, I'll also try to be brief.

2 As you noted earlier, my involvement in the case was 3 late. I had a gap of approximately three weeks from the 4 ending of the trial I completed before this trial, I was on a 5 two week patent infringement in the Larimak (ph) case trial, 6 associates prepared the documents for me for each witness.
7 There was nothing in my file relating to Mr. Hollander
8 regarding the April 23rd meeting and I didn't talk to him
9 about it. When I heard his statements in the voir dire, I 10 understood from what he was saying there that he was at that 11 meeting. I had him the question, he said he was, and I asked 12 him for more about it. I don't know whether his Honor is 13 confused or I was confused or both of us were confused, I
14 thought that he said he was there and I asked him questions 15 about it. And sometime later on cross he was asked about the 16 meeting and he said, no, I wasn't there, and I was surprised 17 to hear that because I thought he said he was earlier. As the 18 Court notes, it's almost a six-week trial, people are going to 19 make mistakes, misstate things.

20 I didn't attempt to encourage him to the say anything 21 that wasn't true. I didn't prepare him to say anything that 22 wasn't true. Neither Allen nor I engaged in any kind of 23 conspiracy with these witnesses to say anything about April 24 2nd other than what they had to say. To my understanding, 25 they were saying the same things they were saying well before

1 we got into the case about Wilder being there April 2nd. I 2 did not attempt to present any false evidence to the Court or 3 to the jury in any way whatsoever. And if there were 4 statements made that could be shown to be actually inaccurate 5 of some omission of someone that was there at the time, that's 6 unfortunate but that's not that surprising in a six-week trial 7 ten years after the date.

8           So I ask to be allowed to remain in this case to 9 continue as counsel for the plaintiffs should I not be 10 appointed to the bench.

11           THE COURT: Okay. Anything further?

12           MR. JACOBSON: That's it for me, your Honor.

13           THE COURT: Ms. Rodriguez, anything you want to add?

14           MS. RODRIGUEZ: No, your Honor. The only thing I 15 would add, I'll just take the specific of the Matt Comlish 16 testimony, to make such outrageous accusations when that 17 little piece of testimony, did you speak to Duane Woerth on 18 the hill, no, and then he scowled at me, quite frankly, you 19 might say the question --

20           THE COURT: I'm sorry, who scowled at you?

21           MS. RODRIGUEZ: Duane Woerth. But that's not 22 speaking -- that's technically not inaccurate and he raised it 23 to the jury, he raised it to Matt Comlish on the stand, these 24 were all issues which were vetted by the jury and it's 25 incumbent upon the jury to make these credibility

1 determinations and they did it. And I think it was a well
2 tried case on both sides and I would ask your Honor to deny 3 this motion out of hand.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Anything further? Anything you
5 want to add, Mr. Fram?

6 MR. FRAM: No, your Honor. Thank you, though.

7 THE COURT: All right. As everybody has noted, this 8 is a case that took, I think it was five-and-a-half weeks, 9 something like that, to try. It involved events which took 10 place basically about ten years before the trial. It involved 11 lots of people. I mean, there were dozens of people who in a 12 way were intimately involved in different committees, you had 13 the MEC itself, you had the negotiating committees, you had 14 MEC's at each of the three locations that TWA, major terminals 15 they maintained. There were lots of meetings, some formal, 16 some informal, people talking to each other, so to be 17 surprised that after ten years people may be confused or some 18 meeting stands out in your mind, others don't. I'm always 19 amazed that when I look back on events, there's sometimes an 20 event that will, from 50 years ago will stick in my mind like 21 glue. In other events, which you might consider much more 22 important to my life, I've absolutely no recollection of. But 23 something that might really be very minor or not important in 24 my life, it just sticks in my head for some reason, who knows 25 what it was that causes it to stick.

1           Ten years is a long time, and in the pressure of 2 litigation, and it is pressure when you're being deposed, 3 sometimes deposed more than once, and you testify and there's 4 the pressures that litigation itself put you on -- put you 5 under -- it's not surprising that people may remember some 6 things, not remember other things, change their testimony 7 between deposition and trial or even in the middle of 8 testimony or in the middle of a deposition change their 9 testimony, and that's unfortunately to be expected.

10           Learned Hand once write an article in 1901, before he 11 was a judge, I think it was in 1901, I think it was in the 12 Albany Law Review, but he wrote an article opposing the use of 13 expert testimony, period, he wouldn't allow it. He just 14 thought the self-interest pressures of litigation would 15 overwhelm in effect good science. I don't know that he's 16 right or wrong. But make no mistake about it, a trial is a 17 high pressure event.

18           Now, let's turn first to the question of Roland
19 Wilder's presence or absence of April 2nd at the MEC meeting 20 at which there was a waiver of scope, which, of course, was a 21 key event in the unfolding story of the TWA pilots and the 22 company being acquired by American.

23           Wilder changed his story, I think it was four times, it 24 was either three times or four times between depositions and 25 trial, because he was deposed more than once and he changed it

1 at trial. He also wrote a certification as well. In addition
2 to being deposed, he gave a certification. There's no 3 question that, or to my mind there's no question that when he 4 finally came to rest on the position that he was, quote, 5 100 percent certain that he wasn't present on April 2nd, was 6 not based on his memory. There's no indication in any 7 deposition or trial that he remembers that. There's 8 indication that he reaches that conclusion based on a 9 description in his bill, which I call it daybook or diary, and 10 maybe also based on an airline ticket receipt of some kind 11 that he concludes that he was not there. So he's 12 flip-flopping back and forth. To what extent he conflates the 13 April 1st, if you want to call it pre-meeting and the 14 April 2nd formal meeting, I don't know, but he does or he may 15 be conflating those at some point, I don't know.

16 We have -- as I say, we have, I believe it's six, five 17 or six witnesses who I would call plaintiff's witnesses who 18 testified that he was there, and at least some of those 19 witnesses were not even present on April 1st. They arrived 20 in -- I think it was St. Louis where it took place?

21 MR. JACOBSON: Yes.

22 THE COURT: They arrived in St. Louis in the evening
23 after the April 1st meeting had taken place and they uniformly 24 testified that Wilder was there on the 2nd, April 2nd. At 25 least some witnesses who I can identify as defense witnesses

1 also testified that Clay Warner was there -- not Clay Warner, 2 Roland Wilder was there. Clay Warner being one of them.
3 David Singer being another. And I think there were two others
4 as well. So there was a fair uniformity. Was the uniformity
5 in describing what it was that Wilder did or said on 6 April 2nd? No, there was not uniformity, I think there was 7 differences between the witness. But to jump from the fact 8 that six plaintiff's witnesses said that he was there to the 9 conclusion that that can only be explained by either suborning 10 of perjury or the deliberately presenting evidence you know to 11 be false, I think is a very dubious proposition. I think to 12 accuse a lawyer of suborning perjury --

13 MR. JACOBSON: Your Honor, may I interrupt one 14 second? This is Joe Jacobson.

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 MR. JACOBSON: I need to leave, I'm supposed to be 17 introduced to by a Chief Justice to several members of the Bar 18 in about three minutes. I apologize.

19 THE COURT: All right. I'm sure Mr. Press will carry 20 the cudgels.

23 MR. JACOBSON: Bye-bye.

24 THE COURT: Bye-bye.

25 And I think, quite candidly, and I use this word -- I

1 noodle this word around in my head, but I think it almost 2 verges on the reckless to charge a lawyer with suborning 3 perjury or deliberately putting on testimony you know to be 4 false without something more than is put forward in this case, 5 which has been basically on inference on inference on 6 speculation. And even when I turn to the, which Mr. Fram says 7 now he's emphasizing more than the Wilder testimony even 8 though in the brief it wasn't, it was the lesser emphasized, 9 but I'll accept that, the witness Hollander on 10 cross-examination was very -- I mean, when he was confronted 11 with stuff he said, yeah, I wasn't there, it surprised people, 12 it surprised me, because what we thought he had testified, 13 what I thought he had testified to, and I think what even 14 Mr. Jacobson thought he had testified to. But to leap from 15 that, to use expressions like they were throwing stuff up on 16 the wall and hoping it would stick, you know, that kind of 17 argument I think again is almost reckless.

18         This is two law firms that, actually more than two law 19 firms, it was four law firms that were involved in the trial, 20 all of whom had extraordinary mastery of the complex file, a 21 mastery of what the witnesses said, what the documents said.
22 To think that somebody says, well, I'll throw some stuff up I 23 know to be false, and maybe they won't catch it, is an 24 allegation which cannot be supported, which defies any kind of 25 logic given the nature of the lawyers in this case and their

1 preparation for this case, which has lasted for six or seven 2 years. I think the case was originally filed in 2002, if I'm 3 not mistaken. Indeed, the statute of limitations was the 4 major issue before the Circuit which brought the case here, 5 brought the case back to me.

6           And I think what we have is what I've had many times 7 before when I was a trial lawyer, these cases where a lot of 8 people are involved, a lot of meetings take place, memories 9 fade, the pressure of litigation sometimes makes people, not 10 because they're lying, I've heard people get up on the stand
11 and say things that I suspected was totally untrue but I 12 didn't think they were lying, I didn't think the people were 13 telling an untruth in the sense that they knew I'm going to 14 get up there and try to fool somebody, but sometimes the 15 pressure of litigation gets them to remember things in a 16 different way. It's a very sensitive process. That's why we 17 have juries. That why we have skilled cross-examination.
18 Because all the points Mr. Fram raises, they were all brought 19 out on cross-examination, every one of them. He had the 20 documents, he had the transcripts from prior depositions, he 21 was familiar exquisitely with those transcripts, he was 22 familiar with the documents, and certainly able and in fact 23 did bring out whatever there was and argued before the jury.
24           I am going to deny the deny the motion to disqualify or 25 to revoke the pro hac vice admission of Mr. Jacobson and

1 Mr. Press and their law firm from continuing in this case.

2 Now, I'm going to turn to the -- well, they're opposite 3 sides of the same coin, I guess, Mr. Fram's motion by 4 definition loses because I think 11(c)(2) talks about the 5 prevailing party and he was not the prevailing party on the 6 motion so he would not be entitled to legal fees.

7 I'll now turn to the motion for Rule 11 sanctions. And 8 who's going to argue that for the plaintiff?

9 MR. PRESS: This is Mr. Press.

10 Again, Judge, I don't know really what to add. But, 11 first of all, thank you for denying Mr. Fram's motion. But in 12 doing that, Judge, you characterized the allegations as almost 13 reckless and dubious, and that characterization I would agree 14 with and I think it's squarely within what Rule 11 is designed 15 to punish.

16 We were defamed by Mr. Fram in a very serious and 17 public way. He may be immune from civil suit, but Rule 11 18 provides a remedy that we think is appropriate in this 19 situation. And we ask for you to grant our motion and enter 20 whatever sanction you deem appropriate.

21 THE COURT: Now, you're relying on 11(b)(2)?

22 MR. FRAM: I don't have the rule in front of me. The 23 provision on evidentiary tort or your claim or your 24 allegation.

25 THE COURT: (B)(2) says the claims offenses and other

1 legal contentions are warranted by existing law or by a
2 non-frivolous argument for extending, modifying, or reversing 3 existing law.

4 MR. PRESS: That's not the provision. I think it's 5 (b) (3) .

6 THE COURT: Oh, the factual contentions of 7 evidentiary support for is specifically so identified --

8 MR. PRESS: The standard to be employed under that is 9 an objective standard, it's not what Mr. Fram believes in his 10 heart or his head, it's what is objectively reasonable. And 11 here there is no objectively reasonable facts or evidence to 12 support any of the outrageous claims made against us. And for 13 that reason we believe you should grant the motion for 14 sanctions.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Fram?

16 MR. PRESS: That's all I would add to the record on 17 that, Judge.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Fram?

19 MR. FRAM: Thank you, your Honor.

20 Your Honor, I hear buzzing in the background. Can you 21 hear me okay?

22 THE COURT: I can hear you now, but I also hear that 23 buzzing.

24 MR. FRAM: It sounds like somebody is on a cell
25 phone, your Honor.

1           Your Honor, you commented in just ruling on the 2 revocation motion that a number of defense witness --

3           THE COURT: Hold it.

4           If anybody is on a cell phone, please hang up.

5           MS. RODRIGUEZ: That's me, your Honor, and I will 6 hang up.

7           THE COURT: Do it right now.

8           MS. RODRIGUEZ: Okay.

9           THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Fram.

10          MR. FRAM: That's much better.

11          Your Honor commented that a number of the defense
12 witnesses testified that Mr. Wider was there on the second.
13 And I would just note that if you had an opportunity to read 14 those transcripts, that's not what they said. Clay Warner did 15 not say --

16          THE COURT: Oh, Clay Warner is a little -- Clay
17 Warner, he doesn't use the date in his deposition, but I think 18 he's fairly clearly talking about the time of day that the 19 waiver was done. I disagree, I think you could read it that 20 way. What about also Singer?

21          MR. FRAM: Your Honor, Singer did say in his 22 deposition that he thought that Wilder might have been there 23 on the 2nd but he wasn't sure. And, of course, he testified 24 at trial that he didn't know. And, of course, Singer as a 25 witness, you may or may not understand this, your Honor, but

1 we were never permitted to sit and prepare Singer for a 2 deposition or his testimony at trial. Mr. Press took the 3 position that Mr. Singer, as a member of the class, was 4 somebody we couldn't talk to. So we just basically had to put 5 him on cold at deposition and put him on cold at trial.

6 THE COURT: You didn't get a chance to work him over?

7 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, as you commented before, we're 8 going back ten years and people are not necessarily going to 9 remember things clearly.

10 THE COURT: That I agree with. That I agree with.

11 MR. FRAM: And that's one of the reasons why when 12 people all of a sudden do remember things clearly and remember 13 them more clearly at trial than they did at deposition, it 14 becomes a question. But, in any event, Singer's recollection 15 I think was vague.

16 There was also an assertion, your Honor, in the 17 plaintiff's papers that Tumblin and Glanzer had testified in 18 deposition that Wilder was there on the 2nd and that's just 19 not the case. They were very vague about it, they never said 20 the 2nd, that was one of the points we were going to highlight 21 in the reply brief that --

22 THE COURT: Their testimony could be construed as 23 saying that, the jury might draw the inference that's what 24 they said.

25 MR. FRAM: Obviously, your Honor, when people say I

1 don't recall, there's lots of different instances you can 2 draw.

3 THE COURT: I mean, you have flip-flopping all over 4 the place here.

5 MR. FRAM: Well, some witnesses are saying pretty 6 adamantly I don't recall, and some witnesses are 7 flip-flopping.

8 THE COURT: And some --

9 MR. FRAM: As I said before, when people flip in a 10 direction that seems to be --

11 THE COURT: But that's a mile away from suborning 12 perjury.

13 MR. FRAM: Well, your Honor, let me just --

14 THE COURT: That's a mile away. Man, that is 15 shooting a bullet right at somebody's -- between the eyes.

16 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, we didn't -- the motion didn't 17 accuse anybody of perjury or suborning perjury. You asked me 18 do I believe that --

19 THE COURT: And the answer was yes. But you didn't 20 have to say yes because I read your brief, I said I read it 21 over and over again, and there was a question that's what -- I 22 don't know, maybe the word wasn't used.

23 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, you sat through the trial and 24 you heard my closing and I didn't use the L word, it wasn't 25 necessary.

1 THE COURT: You mean liar?

2 MR. FRAM: That the plaintiffs had come up with a 3 story that was consistent, I think the evidence supports that.
4 I think if the jury had an opportunity to address that issue, 5 they would have agreed, but they didn't. But the point is to 6 focus on the Rule 11 issue, we didn't set out to prove and 7 didn't allege there was perjury or subornation of perjury, but 8 we argued that was there was false testimony.

9 THE COURT: False testimony is one thing. Testimony, 10 or let's call it inaccurate, that's one thing, testimony that 11 is inaccurate. It's quite another thing for a lawyer to 12 either know it's false, or worse, work the witnesses over to 13 get them to say that --

14 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, this goes --

15 THE COURT: -- that's a big difference. I mean, 16 there's testimony all the time that a witness gives that turns 17 out to be inaccurate for one reason or another. But --

18 MR. FRAM: Back to the point -- I go back to the 19 point that your Honor made a couple moments ago, which is that 20 your Honor expected and believed from observing the trial that 21 all of the lawyers were extraordinarily well prepared, and 22 that was certainly our assumption and our understanding with 23 respect to Mr. Jacobson. That's why when he put Mr. Hollander 24 on, Mr. Hollander testified the way that he did, sat there and 25 said, wait a minute, how could he be putting that testimony on

1 when he has a well prepared lawyer, has talked to the witness 2 ahead of time, must have looked at a documents, must have 3 understood that the documents clearly show he wasn't there.
4 So I think your Honor's comments --

5 THE COURT: Well, no, I'm reading right now in 6 Wilder's own testimony, and he says now I am confident I was 7 not there. This is that section of the 100 percent
8 confidence. I am confident I was not there on April 2nd 9 because I learned of the vote on April 2nd by telephone. And 10 I learned, as a result of this proceeding, that the vote was 11 taken on April 2nd not April 1st. He's not really testifying 12 from his memory, he's testifying from basically what he 13 learned from the litigation.

14 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, he obviously knew on the 2nd 15 from the telephone calls that are reflected in his invoice 16 about the vote, and he certainly knew well before the 17 litigation about the vote. Because, as your Honor knows, 18 he -- because TWA and MEC for the rest of the year proposed a 19 different litigation and the like.

20 But in terms of the argument, the assertion here that 21 the facts were wrong, every single fact that we relied upon in 22 the revocation motion is an accurate fact. And there isn't a 23 single fact in there that's not and there isn't a single fact 24 that we could have found that is contrary to that. And we 25 certainly didn't anticipate, for example, that Mr. Jacobson

1 would come back and say, well, I was confused and unprepared.
2 I never would have expected that. Your Honor never would have 3 expected that. We certainly didn't anticipate the argument 4 that Wilder's bills, that he exercised billing judgment and 5 wrote off time and submitted a bill that was inaccurate.
6 Those are arguments that I don't think -- they're really 7 arguments, they're not facts. And the issue here really is 8 whether -- not whether the facts that we've advanced for the 9 pro hac vice motion are accurate, they're clearly accurate, 10 there's no suggestion otherwise, but whether the inference 11 that you draw from those facts is an inference that's 12 warranted or not.

13 And for all of the reasons that I argued to the jury in 14 my closing and for all of the reasons that are outlined in the 15 papers, we believe that they are warranted and that a 16 reasonable person could reach that conclusion.

17 THE COURT: You know, you use the phrase in your 18 brief at Page 15 without consciously synthesizing their 19 stories.

20 MR. FRAM: Yes. Yes, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: That's suborning perjury.

22 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, what we still don't have is we 23 don't know don't have an explanation for how witnesses --

24 THE COURT: That's what you don't have. You can't 25 bring a motion on what you don't have.

1 MR. FRAM: No, the only inference that I think can be 2 drawn from the fact that the stories went from inconsistent to 3 consistent and from vague to very detailed with respect to 4 April 2nd and that all of a sudden people came in and had no 5 recollection of March 21st and 22nd, that can't be 6 inconsistent, that can't be --

7 THE COURT: You're rearguing the motion now.

8 MR. FRAM: No.

9 THE COURT: But my point only is that it's a 10 devastating accusation against a lawyer.

11 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, I appreciate that and I
12 understand the Court's concern about that, but there was a lot 13 at stake at the trial, you sat through it and clearly 14 appreciate that someone's recollection was not accurate. And 15 I think you appreciate as well --

16 THE COURT: I think there were a ton of recollections 17 that were not accurate.

18 MR. FRAM: And that some of the testimony in view of 19 that was false.

20 THE COURT: I don't think there's a single witness 21 who testified who gave a fully accurate recounting of the 22 events about which he or she testified.

23 MR. FRAM: So again --

24 THE COURT: Not one witness on other side.

25 MR. FRAM: And that's what happens, your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Yeah, that happens. That's not to say 2 that you don't have a trial because of that, that's what 3 happens in trial.

4 MR. FRAM: Absolutely, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: But I don't think -- I don't think 6 Woerth -- I think Woerth shaded his testimony. I think -- 7 that doesn't mean he deliberately lied, but I think testimony 8 was -- every single witness in some respect shaded their 9 testimony one way or another, not necessarily deliberately but 10 gave a picture that was not really completely accurate. But 11 so what? You know, that's what a jury is for, to sort that 12 out.

13 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, and that's what happens when 14 you deal with a case with lots of witnesses and lots of 15 events. But the fact of the matter is that there was some 16 testimony, it's been admitted, that was false, including the 17 Hollander testimony, and the fair inference, and we've cited
18 Justice Frankfurter --

19 THE COURT: And the fair inference is that the 20 lawyers suborned it?

21 MR. FRAM: No. No. No. The fair inference is that 22 the lawyers knew that certain of the testimony was false.

23 THE COURT: And that they put it on and argued it.

24 MR. FRAM: I think they did.

25 THE COURT: I mean, the line between doing that is

1 suborning perjury, although I think you in your brief you 2 crossed -- a person reading that brief would reach the 3 conclusion that you're charging subornation.

4 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, that's not what the brief says
5 and that's not the standard, and whether or not somebody 6 looking at these facts could reach that conclusion is a 7 different matter. But the fact remains that a lawyer knowing 8 the facts and knowing the documents and everything else, I 9 think, no question in my mind, that a fair inference from what 10 happened here in terms of the --

11 THE COURT: Now, you're rearguing the motion, you're 12 not arguing whether there should be sanctions.

13 MR. FRAM: Well, your Honor, what I'm arguing is that 14 the facts we rely upon, it sounds like it's the only --

15 THE COURT: Well, the facts are -- the core facts 16 that we start with is what was testified to at trial, what was 17 testified to in prior depositions, what was contained in a 18 couple of case declarations, those facts are uncontested. You 19 know, what's in the transcript is in the transcript, what's in 20 the depositions is in the depositions, what's in the -- so 21 those facts are all true.

22 MR. FRAM: Yes, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: That's why I maybe take -- the question 24 is the facts, to the extent that the facts that are relevant 25 to your motion, though, are not those facts, the facts that

1 are relevant to your motion would be did the two lawyers
2 knowing that testimony was false deliberately put it before 3 the jury, before the tribunal and argue it when they knew it 4 was false or even worse, did they suborn it, did they actually 5 take the six witnesses and by, quote, preparing them harmonize 6 their testimony or, in the words of your brief, did they 7 synthesize their stories. Those are allegations about the 8 state of mind of the plaintiff's lawyers and you want me to 9 draw an inference as to what that state of mind was. From 10 your interpretation of the evidence, you're talking about 11 Wilder correcting his testimony. But Wilder changed his 12 testimony. I don't know if he corrected it, he changed it.
13 And somehow or other the use of adverbs or adjectives doesn't 14 really help the argument any. And the notion here that 15 defense counsel deliberately put on false testimony because 16 you reached the conclusion that a certain version of the facts 17 are true and another version is false, as you can tell by my 18 ruling on the underlying motion, I have a lot of trouble with.

19 MR. FRAM: You just said defense counsel.

20 THE COURT: Well, it's the plaintiff's counsel.

21 MR. FRAM: Yes. Well, your Honor, look, you 22 obviously don't feel that we have met the burden of proving 23 that. But to focus on Rule 11, is there any fact we cited in 24 the brief that is not accurate or is there any other 25 information available to us that --

1           THE COURT: Well, it's the legal -- basically, the 2 implicit fact has to do with the state of mind of the defense
3 counsel because that's inherent to your motion. If defense
4 counsel -- I'm sorry. Plaintiff's counsel. If plaintiff's 5 counsel believed everything they put on was true, even if it 6 turned out not to be true or the jury found it not to be true, 7 isn't a ground for, you know, sanctioning them in any way. So 8 implicit in your motion is the charge that the state of mind 9 of the plaintiffs was venal, that they either knew something 10 was false when they offered it and argued it and even worse 11 the inference in your papers that the lawyers had something to 12 do with harmonizing, in your view, the testimony of the pilots
13 who testified that Wilder was present, and that's the fact 14 that's highly contested.

15           MR. FRAM: Your Honor, that inference from the facts, 16 again no one has challenged the facts and said --

17           THE COURT: No. No. But it's also -- maybe it's a 18 mixed conclusion of fact and law, you're reaching a legal 19 conclusion that the rules of ethics were violated by the 20 lawyers in the case and you can't get there without arguing 21 the state of mind of the two lawyers.

22           MR. FRAM: And one of the bases for that argument, 23 which your Honor mentioned before, is that you expected all 24 the lawyers on both sides were well prepared and understood 25 the record.

1 THE COURT: And I believe they did.

2 MR. FRAM: And that's why, with respect to 3 April 23rd, we reached the conclusion, I reached the 4 conclusion that Mr. Jacobson knew the documents relating to 5 the meeting, was familiar with the record, and when he put 6 Mr. Hollander up on the stand and had him testify he was there 7 on the 23rd.

8 THE COURT: So in his mind he knew there were 9 documents that said that and he knew in the sense of, whatever 10 the word is, had reason to believe that the testimony was 11 false but he put it on anyhow in the hope that you wouldn't 12 catch it.

13 MR. FRAM: Well, your Honor --

14 THE COURT: Is that your argument?

15 MR. FRAM: That's the only conclusion to reach.

16 THE COURT: No, it's not the only conclusion to 17 reach. There's an affidavit from Mr. Jacobson which gives a 18 different conclusion. It's not the only conclusion. You 19 can't use words like, oh, that's the only conclusion, that's 20 not argument.

21 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, I didn't anticipate that 22 Mr. Jacobson would say I was unprepared for this very 23 important case on this important issue.

24 THE COURT: No, he's saying that he was -- you know, 25 there were tons of witnesses, to say he wasn't aware of a

1 particular document or hadn't talked to this particular 2 witness, is not the same as saying he was unprepared. Come 3 on, that's not fair.

4 MR. FRAM: Jacobson only presented, if my 5 recollection is right, he only presented one or two of the 6 plaintiffs.

7 THE COURT: Yeah, that's the point, he only, although 8 he was there, I think, every day, he only presented a couple 9 of witnesses, I believe. I think you're right on that.

10 MR. FRAM: That's my recollection. And I would have 11 expected him to know the record backwards and forwards, as any 12 lawyer would have, and from the state of the minutes that 13 Hollander wasn't there.

14 THE COURT: Anything further by either side?

15 MR. FRAM: No, your Honor.

16 MR. PRESS: Judge, it's Mr. Press.

17 You've been saying that --

18 THE COURT: Me?

19 MR. PRESS: You've been saying that the notion we've 20 suborned perjury is something to be inferred from ALPA's 21 brief, but they say it directly.

22 THE COURT: Tell me where.

23 MR. PRESS: Pages 26 and 27, that I knowingly induced 24 Roland Wilder to testify falsely.

25 THE COURT: Just a minute. 26. I have 26 in front

1 of me.

2 MR. PRESS: 26, Subparagraph 1, that's in the single 3 spacing at the bottom. Then the next page at Paragraph 5 he 4 says that I had five witnesses testifying falsely knowing the 5 truth.

6 THE COURT: Yeah, by having --

7 (Reading Silently)

8 THE COURT: All right.

9 MR. PRESS: They say that I coached, that's their 10 term, I coached witnesses.

11 THE COURT: Where is that?

12 MR. PRESS: That's on Page 26 in the middle.

13 THE COURT: Improperly coached.

14 MR. PRESS: Yes.

15 THE COURT: That subornation.

16 MR. PRESS: The direct charge is that we suborned 17 perjury, Judge.

18 THE COURT: No, when I read the thing as a whole and,
19 as I said, I read it several times, I was left with the 20 impression fundamentally that the only way you could read this 21 was a charge of subornation. I didn't focus on the word 22 coaching, I should have.

23 MR. PRESS: I just wanted to highlight that, Judge.
24 That's all I wanted to add.

25 THE COURT: Unless anybody has anything they want to 1 add, I'm going to rule.

2 All right. With respect to the motion by the plaintiff
3 for Rule 11 sanctions, I'm going to grant the motion. I find 4 there was a violation of (b) (2) and (b) (3). I think (b) (3), 5 to the extent it charges, well, coaching the witnesses, but it
6 charges in effect a guilty state of mind, that's a factual 7 assertion as to what the two lawyers were thinking or believed 8 when they put the testimony on. And I believe the brief can 9 fairly be read to charge not only knowingly putting on false 10 testimony but putting on -- but having suborned it, having 11 taken steps to, as they say, the word coach to make the 12 witnesses testify to something they know to be false, they 13 knew to be false, the lawyers knew to be false. So to the 14 extent we're dealing with a guilty state of mind or the 15 argument that there was coaching of some kind or suborning 16 perjury of some kind, I believe there's no factual support for 17 that. And I don't believe the inferences that the defendant 18 is trying to draw are adequate support for charges of that 19 seriousness. Even applying a preponderance of the evidence 20 standard, I don't believe by a preponderance of the evidence 21 that they've proven that Mr. Press or Mr. Jacobson had a 22 guilty state of mind when that evidence was offered, either 23 that they knew it to be false and offered it knowing its 24 falsity, or even worse, played a role by coaching or otherwise 25 in creating that falsity. As I say in this case, there were

1 no surprises, everybody had everything. That's (b)(3).

2 (b)(2) is requirements that there has to be a proper 3 legal contention that's warranted by existing law. I think 4 the question to some degree whether there was a violation of 5 the ethics rules, could be construed as an issue of law as 6 well as an issue of fact. And I think that based on the facts
7 that I did find were supported, i.e., what the depositions 8 said, what the testimony said, since we had transcripts of all 9 of that, I do not believe there was a sound legal conclusion 10 or sound legal basis for concluding under existing law or by 11 an extension of existing law that the rules of ethics were 12 violated and therefore that revoking a pro hac vice admission 13 would be justified.

14 And understand, I believe that if I found a violation, 15 particularly of the obligation of candor to the tribunal, I 16 believe that under many circumstances that could justify, as a 17 matter of law, revoking a pro hac vice admission. I think it 18 could also justify much more severe sanctions, like suspension 19 or disbarment. But I found in this case such facts, as were 20 established, do not justify that legal conclusion.

21 I am therefore, going to grant the motion. I'm giving 22 the plaintiffs 14 days to submit an affidavit as to what legal 23 fees. I'm imposing, in other words, the legal fees in 24 defending this motion. I'm imposing, in addition to that, 25 imposing a $5,000 sanction in addition to legal fees and 1 costs, which has to be paid within 30 days.

2 Anything further?

3 MR. FRAM: I don't believe the motion sought 4 sanctions based upon --

5 THE COURT: I'm awarding.

6 MR. FRAM: -- the failure -- I just wanted to make 7 sure the Court was aware.

8 THE COURT: Well, if they disclaim receiving 9 sanctions, I will withdraw it.

10 MR. FRAM: No, your Honor, seeking sanctions on the 11 failure to investigate the law properly, I thought it was a 12 factual investigation.

13 THE COURT: Well, I think there's a close line here, 14 it's sort of a mixed question of law and fact and I'm sticking 15 with my ruling.

16 MR. FRAM: I understand, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. PRESS: The $5,000 on top of the legal fees, who 19 is to receive that money?

20 THE COURT: You.

21 MR. PRESS: Me, Mr. Press, or my firm?

22 THE COURT: Your law firm. I don't want to get into 23 a partnership agreement.

24 MR. PRESS: Okay.

25 THE COURT: You know, as to how that would be --

1 well, I'll do it this way, it's $2,500 each for you and for 2 Mr. Jacobson.

3 MR. PRESS: Okay.

4 THE COURT: All right. How your law firm deals with 5 it, I'll leave it up to you. I used to represent law firms 6 where money was somehow or other paid and law firms suggested 7 they were entitled to the money not the lawyers. So I'll let 8 your partnership agreement deal with that.

9 MR. FRAM: Your Honor, could I just clarify in terms
10 of who the award is against? I assume it's against me.

11 THE COURT: Yes, it's not against the client.

12 MR. FRAM: I just wanted to make sure.

13 THE COURT: It's not against ALPA. I have nothing in 14 the record that has suggested that somehow or other, and there 15 are cases where there is authority that Rule 11 can be against 16 a client if you can show, I believe if you can show that the 17 client played some role in bringing about the improper filing.
18 But I don't find that here. Maybe it was there but I don't 19 know about it, nothing in this record has suggested to me that 20 the motion was somehow or other ALPA's internal people were 21 beating up on outside counsel to file this motion. So far as 22 I know, this motion was the result of counsel's work. So, no.
23 And I'm also, actually, as part of my Order, that no part of 24 the $5,000 and no part of the fees can be charged back to 25 ALPA.

1 MR. FRAM: Yes, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Okay. I want that in the Order.

3 Anything else?

4 By the way, Lisa Marcus, since I have a feeling that 5 someone's going to want this transcript, is the court 6 reporter. She is Judge Simandle's full-time court report but 7 today she's sitting in for me. Okay?

8 MR. PRESS: Thank you, Judge.

9 THE COURT: Okay. I'll see you later.
